A Note from Mal Keenan

Greetings friends,

As always a warm welcome to those of you who have joined us since our last issue of HBT Newsletter.

What I have begun to realise lately is that I just don't have the time to do everything I want to online and so I am left with the dilemma of outsourcing some of my work. What I actually need done is for someone to create web pages for me using certain software which they will need training for.

My dilemma is that I don't know who I could trust to do a good job

PLUS I am going to have to come up with some sort of training system to train them too.

I have outsourced work before using Elance.com with mixed results.

On one occasion one guy split with my cash and didn't finish the job, so if you're reading this Bill I hope
